ARRIVAL CEREMONY AT ANDREWS AIR FORCE BASE

18 FEB 1979, 12:20

ACTION

SEQUENCE

Ramp & cordon are positioned

The Secretary boards aircraft (accompanied by Maj.Gen Kenneth Dohleman, CDR of MDW)

to greet widow and accompanying party. He then escorts Mrs. Dubs from plane and proceeds to area designated (see attached diagram "FAMILY". Accompanying party follows Secretary and Mrs. Dubs)

The Officer In Charge of the Joint Honor Cordon will bring the cordon to PRESENT ARMS. The United States Navy Band will sound four ruffles and flourishes, followed by the National Anthem. On the first note of ruffles and flourishes, the Salute Battery will commence firing a nineteen gun salute. A ten second pause will follow the last round and the band will play an appropriate hymn.

When the officer in charge brings the cordon to PRESENT ARMS all participants should stand at attention and render the appropriate salute

During the hymn the Joint Service Casket Team will carry the casket between the ranks of the Joint Honor Cordon and place the casket in the hearse (the door will remain open), the band will stop playing and the Joint Honor Cordon will ORDER ARMS (All terminate salute).
